- 1.21 “Specified Persons” means the Directors, connected persons, the insiders, the Designated Employees and the promoters and their immediate relatives.

Words and expressions used and not defined in this code but defined in the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, and rules and regulations made there under shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in those legislation.

2. ROLE OF COMPLIANCE OFFICER

- 2.1 The Compliance Officer shall report on insider trading to the Board of Directors of the Company and shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee on an annual basis at a meeting of Audit Committee held immediately after close of the financial year.
- 2.2 The Compliance Officer shall assist all employees in addressing any clarifications regarding the Securities & Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and the Company’s Code of Conduct.

3. PRESERVATION OF “PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION”

- 3.1 All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the insider’s legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations.

Explanation: For the purpose of above Clause, legitimate purpose shall mean sharing of information by the Company with partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants in its ordinary course of business.

The Company shall however, in no circumstances share information solely for the purpose of evading the compliances of these regulations or circumventing the prohibitions of these regulations.

Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction which entails:

- an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company; or
- not attracting the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine.

However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information

3.2 Need to Know:

- (i) "need to know" basis means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information.
- (ii) All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.

3.3 Limited access to confidential information

Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc.

3.4 Chinese Wall

3.4.1 To prevent the misuse of confidential information the organisation / firm shall adopt a "Chinese Wall" policy which separates those areas of the organisation/firm which routinely have access to confidential information, considered "inside areas" from those areas which deal with sale/marketing/investment advise or other departments providing support services, considered "public areas".

3.4.2 The employees in the inside area shall not communicate any Price Sensitive Information to anyone in public area.

3.4.3 The employees in inside area may be physically segregated from employees in public area.

3.4.4 Demarcation of the various departments as inside area may be implemented by the organisation / firm.

3.4.5 In exceptional circumstances employees from the public areas may be brought "over the wall" and given confidential information on the basis of "need to know" criteria, under intimation to the compliance officer.

3.5 Digital database of Information

The board of directors shall ensure that a structured digital database is maintained containing the names of such persons or entities as the case may be with whom information is shared under this regulation along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available. Such databases shall be maintained with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database.

4. PREVENTION OF MISUSE OF “UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION”

Employees and connected persons designated on the basis of their functional role (“Designated Persons”) in the Company shall be governed by this code of conduct governing dealing in securities. The employees of the Company holding designation of General Manager and above shall be deemed to be a designated person.

4.1 Trading Plan:

An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

4.2 Trading Plan shall:

- (i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- (ii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- (iii) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- (iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- (v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- (vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

4.3 The Compliance Officer shall consider the Trading Plan made as above and shall approve it forthwith. However, he shall be entitled to take express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan as per provisions of the Regulations.

4.4 The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information. Further, the Insider shall also not be allowed to deal in securities of the Company, if the date of trading in securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.

- 4.5 Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

5. TRADING WINDOW AND WINDOW CLOSURE

- 5.1 (i) The trading period, i.e. the trading period of the stock exchanges, called ‘trading window’, is available for trading in the Company’s securities.
- (ii) The trading window shall be, inter alia, closed 7 days prior to and up to 48 hours after unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available. The Compliance Officer will inform all the concerned persons of the opening and closing of Trading Window.

Trading restriction period shall be made applicable from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after the declaration of Financial Results of the Company.

- (iii) When the trading window is closed, the Specified Persons shall not trade in the Company’s securities during such period.
- (iv) All Specified Persons shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company’s securities during the periods when the trading window is closed, as referred to in Point No. (ii) above or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.
- 5.2 The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the Designated Persons when he determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates.
- 5.3 The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, however in any event it shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.
- 5.4 The trading window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the Company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the Company.

6. PRE-CLEARANCE OF TRADES

6.1 All Specified Persons, who intend to deal in the securities of the Company when the trading window is open and the number of equity shares proposed to be traded are 500 equity shares or more or where value of the trades proposed is ₹ 1,00,000/- (market value) or more, should pre-clear the transaction. However, no insider shall be entitled to apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such insider is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed and hence he shall not be allowed to trade.

The pre-dealing procedure shall be hereunder:

- (i) An application may be made in the prescribed Form (Annexure-1) to the Compliance Officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the Specified Person intends to deal in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by any rule made by the company in this behalf.
- (ii) An undertaking (Annexure-2) shall be executed in favour of the Company by such Specified Person incorporating, inter alia, the following clauses, as may be applicable:
 - (a) That the employee/director/officer does not have any access or has not received “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information” up to the time of signing the undertaking.
 - (b) That in case the Specified Person has access to or receives “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information” after the signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction he/she shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his position and that he/she would completely refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes public.
 - (c) That he/she has not contravened the code of conduct as notified by the Company from time to time.
 - (d) That he/she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.
- (iii) All Specified Persons shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within seven working days after the approval of pre-clearance is given. The Specified Person shall file within 2 (two) working days of the execution of the order, the details of such order with the Compliance Officer in the prescribed form (Annexure-3).
- (iv) In case, after securing pre-clearance, the trades have not been executed within the pre-clearance period, the same shall be reported with reasons to the Compliance officer in prescribed form (Annexure-4) within 2 (two) working days of expiry of the pre-clearance period.

- (v) If the order is not executed within seven working days after the approval is given, the employee/director must pre-clear the transaction again.
- (vi) All Specified Persons who buy or sell any securities of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any securities during the next six months following the prior transaction. None of the Specified Persons shall take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the Company at any time. In case of any contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.

In case of subscription in the primary market (initial public offers), the above mentioned entities shall hold their investments for a minimum period of 30 days. The holding period would commence when the securities are actually allotted.

- (vii) The Compliance Officer may waive off the holding period in case of sale of securities in personal emergency after recording reasons for the same. However, no such sale will be permitted when the Trading window is closed.
